County Board Chairperson - Mick McGrath

Tá fáilte roibh go léir chuig na cluichí ceathrú ceannais de chraobhchomórtais iománaíocht na condae a bhéas ar siúl an deireadh seachtaine seo. Is am an-deacair é seo d'imreoirí, lucht bainistíochta, oifigigh agus lucht féachana agus tá áthas ar CLG Dhún na nGall a bheith in ann na cluichí ceathrú ceannais go léir a shruhlú beo agus an clár fíorúil seo a sholáthar ina bhfuil an fhasnéis is tábhachtaí. You are all very welcome to this weekend's junior hurling championship quarterfinals. We have battled against the change in our lifestyles, our work, our social fabric, our families, and our sporting involvement. The GAA has seen many changes since its foundation, and it has originated from the roots and soul of our Gaelic traditions, but no member could have foreseen the changes wrought by Covid-19.

The year 2020 will certainly remain in our memories as the year of transformation, and we continue to implement the many prevention measures required to keep this virus at bay. I encourage you all to continue the great work that we have all had a part to play in, and I thank you for the many hours of voluntary assistance you have contributed in your Club areas in assisting the HSE and others, in bringing safe and healthy practice to vulnerable and lonely members of our communities. On behalf of the GAA in Donegal I thank the frontline workers who have given so much to helping our society, in facing the challenge of the coronavirus. There was a period this year where we all thought that we wouldn't get playing our games, but many difficulties were overcome to reach these hurling championship quarterfinals this weekend. We have not agreed with all the instructions and regulations, but we respect the decision makers for their fight against this unprecedented virus while still getting our games played.

The County Competition Control Committee (CCCC) have used new regulations, competition formats, and workmanlike decision making to reach this stage of championship, and we are all delighted to see the championship finalised in these difficulty times. I congratulate all Clubs who have continued to contribute to giving us the opportunity to see Gaelic games played in changed and difficult times. The streaming of our games is a new phase and challenge that we have been thrown into, and we have tech-knowledgeable members getting to grips with this new way of bringing our club games into our homes. I wish the four competing teams, and the match Officials, the best of luck.

Hurling Board Chairperson - Manus O'Domhnaill

On behalf of An Choiste Iomána, I would like to congratulate all of the clubs still in contention for the Junior Championship Title, namely Aodh Ruadh (defending Champions), Carndonagh, Dungloe, Four Masters, Saint Eunan's and Setanta. Commiserations to Letterkenny Gaels who failed to make the Knock-out stages, but I am sure they will continue their great work in promoting and developing the game of hurling.

It is vital for hurling in the County that we have more adult teams and this year we give a special 'Céad Míle Fáilte', to the adult hurlers from An Clochán Liath who are competing in our adult competitions for the first time and it is testament to the great work of Cormac Hartnett and all his fellow hurlers in the capital of 'The Rosses'. It is also great to see Four Masters reappearing, after an absence of a number of years and we in the Hurling Community wish them well and continued success.

Our two Quarter Finals on Sunday Aodh Ruadh versus Saint Eunan's and Setanta versus Four Masters promise to be two keenly contested games, with Carndonagh and Dungloe awaiting the winners in the Semi-Finals. Good luck to all the players and management teams on Sunday.

Ádh Mór, Manus O'Domhnaill.

The Knock-Out Stages and Streaming

The Government's decision to play all Gaelic Games behind closed doors until September 13th is dis-appointing for all club members and other supporters. Ironically, CLG Dhún na nGall scheduled knock-out games for September because the original government roadmap designated the start of that month for the return of up to 5,000 supporters at our games.

The GAA is a widespread grassroots organisation and it is important in these difficult times that CLG Dhún na nGall do their utmost to look after the interests of the members and supporters who make clubs throughout the County the excellent community organisations they are. As such, the County Board is striving to broadcast most of the 33 knockout games in the Michael Murphy Sports & Leisure Senior, Intermediate and Junior championships – football and hurling. The current timetable for the next five weeks is:

|------------------|---|
| August 30th: | 2 Junior Hurling Quarterfinals - free and streamed by the Home Clubs |
| September 4-6: | 12 football games, Senior and Intermediate QFs, Senior and Intermediate Relegation SFs - All PPV, Streamed by Donegal GAA |
| September 11-13: | 10 games, Senior and Intermediate Football SFs, Senior and Intermediate Football Relegation Finals, Junior Football QFs |
| September 18-20: | 4 games, Senior and Junior Hurling SFs, Junior Football SF's |
| September 25-27: | 3 games, Senior, Intermediate and Junior Football Finals - ALL PPV |
| October 4-6: | 2 games, Senior and Junior Hurling Finals - Both PPV |

The latter end of this proposed schedule may be subject to change, moving forward or backwards, depending on future circumstances. Donegal GAA streamed six games in 2019, peak viewership reaching around 2,000 for the 2nd replay of the senior County final. Post-Covid, with social distancing and crowd restrictions, it has reached a new level with every county streaming their championship games. While many clubs have been happily streaming over the last six weeks, last Sunday Donegal GAA streamed its first game of 2020 - the Round 4 football game between St Eunan's and St Michaels. The live stream attracted peak-viewing of over a 1,000 and by mid-week had been viewed over 15,000 times on the Official Donegal Facebook page.

The knock-out games streamed by the County Board will be on a PPV basis. The quarterfinals will cost €3 and other games €5 except for the Senior football final which will be €8. The PRO will produce a series of "virtual programmes" - such as this one - that can be consulted on-line or down loaded/printed. Programmes will be included in the PPV price or free where there is no PPV as is the case with these Junior Hurling quarterfinals and with this Virtual Programme.

While the County Board will endeavour to stream all knockout games where this is not possible it is hoped other games can be streamed with the help of clubs. This weekend Aodh Ruadh and Setanta HC have stepped in to stream their quarterfinal with Naomh Adhamhnáin. At this point, it is appropriate to express my gratitude to the many clubs that have streamed games (for free) and looked after the interests of their supporters locally, elsewhere in Ireland and overseas over recent weeks. The County Board will forego revenue on games where clubs are providing the voluntary help and will stream these games for free. For all streamed games, and the "free" ones in particular, it is worth noting that streaming in the County is still in its infancy, there may be occasional issues with consistent coverage in some venues and it is being provided by local, unpaid volunteers - people should manage their expectation around this.

Preview from Gerry McLaughlin - Donegal Post

If this year's JHC county final is half as heart stopping and entertaining as last year's decider between Aodh Ruadh and Carndonagh, then hurling fans are in for a real treat.

The Ballyshannon boys edged that thriller, but Carn have started this season like a rocket, determined to set the record straight. This weekend John Rooney and Barry O'Neill's county champions take on St Eunan's in Ballyshannon.

At full tilt, Aodh Ruadh would be expected to advance but injuries to key players like Paul Sheridan, Oisín Rooney and Senan Rooney among others, means they could have a real fight on their hands.

"We have up to eight starting players who are doubtful, so it is not ideal preparation.

"St Eunan's have up to 50 adult hurlers in their club and have added a new dimension to hurling in the county so their second string could be quite capable as well.

"We will be doing well to come out with a result, said John Rooney.

But like other clubs Aodh Ruadh have quality dual players like Colm Kelly, Eamon McGrath, Shane McGrath and Eddie Lynch who are only playing football and it is a real pity that they are not with the hurlers as well.

In the other quarter final new boys Four Masters make the long trip to the Cross to take on the Setanta second string.

Setanta have a big panel of players and some very promising young talent who are pushing for senior slots.

There is a great tradition in the area since Danny Cullen Snr revived the game in the late 1960s and early 1970s.

They will start as favourites against new boys Four Masters who are back in adult action after so many years off the scene.

Club stalwart Fergal McAllister has put together a big young panel who competed quite well with Aodh Ruadh for the first half.

The Patton's and Cathal Feeney, whose father Michael Feeney was a key figure for Masters in the 1990s are among their prominent performers.

They will travel with some degree of confidence, but home advantage could be crucial.

In the other section Carn look to be the side and there is another new club from Dungloe/Gaoth Dobhair as hurling continues to grow in the county.

Covid-19 Adjustments to Match Regulations

Restrictions due to Covid-19 required a number of adjustments to Match Regulations for Gaelic Games during 2020. These include:

1.3 A maximum of 20 players (starting 15 and 5 panel members) shall be allowed within the pitch enclosure during the playing of the game. Any additional panel members should be outside the pitch enclosure.

1.4 A maximum of 4 (football) & 5 (hurling) Team Officials shall be allowed within the pitch Enclosure during the playing of our games – one Bainisteoir, one Maor Foirne, one Medic, One Club Official and One Maor Camán (Hurling only).

1.5 Each team will be allocated an area of the pitch (the Team Officials & Players Zone) between the 20 m and 45m lines in advance of the game by the Committee-in-Charge. Their team officials and panel of players, as per regulations 1.3 & 1.4, shall be positioned during the game. The Zones shall have ten seats positioned to ensure compliance with Government social distancing guidelines (currently 2 metres). Dugouts may be used provided the government guidelines around social distancing are observed.

1.7 Ball boys are not permitted.

1.8 Accredited photographers with media passes will be permitted pitch-side. They are restricted to the opposite side of the pitch to the Team Officials and they are not allowed behind either set of goalposts.

2.8 Water Breaks – One water break will take place between the 15th & 20th minute in each half. The referee will signal for the water break only when the ball has gone out of play following a score, wide or during a stoppage called by the Referee. The breaks should last no longer than a minute, with players coming to the area in front of their team zone and drinking from their own clearly marked bottle. The time taken for the break will be added to the end of each half as part of the additional time. If a venue has a match clock, it should continue during this time. Players are permitted to position their clearly marked water bottle around the outside of the pitch. Maor Uisce are not permitted in either Football or Hurling.

2.10 Substitutes - Substitutes are not allowed a kick/puck around at half-time. A maximum of three substitutes wearing designated distinctive tops may warm up on sidelines at any one time. A maximum number of 5 substitutes are allowed within the pitch enclosure at any one time. As per rule, there is no limit on the size of a club match day panel.

Club Donegal WinYourHouseinDublin Draw

The online site for the Club Donegal House Draw is live at www.winyourhouseindublin.com. The top prize is a four bedroom house, semi-detached, in Dublin in association with Alanna Homes. The house is newly built to the latest energy efficiency standards and is valued at €400,000. There are also four other prizes including a brand new Mazda 2, a week's holiday, €1,000 cash and a night's B&B in Carton House with a round of golf for 2.

All proceeds from the draw go towards paying the debt on the newly completed Phase 2 of the Donegal GAA Centre in Convooy and financing the planned Phase 3. The ongoing development of the Centre is a key plank in the future success of GAA games in Donegal - football and hurling, youth and adult, ladies and men. The Donegal Facebook page has a video of county manager Declan Bonner and captain Michael Murphy discussing the centrality of the facilities at Convooy to both the continued success of our county representatives and the nurturing of future stars.

Tickets for the draw can be bought online using devices from mobiles to desktop computers. Tickets are also from contacts within each of the forty clubs in the County. Thanks you to the Abbey Hotel, Donegal; the Allingham Arms, Bundoran; the Mount Errigal, Letterkenny; and the Villa Rose, Ballybofey - tickets had been available from these venues but due to Covid 19 regulations this is no longer the case.

During the half-time break in today's game you can listen to Donegal native Daniel O'Donnell promoting the draw. During the interval there will also be an excellent bird's eye view of the recently completed Phase 2 of the Centre compliments of drone footage shot by main contractors McDermott and Trearty. WinYourHouseinDublin also sponsor today's Man of the Match.

There is a dedicated mobile phone number, where queries can be answered and purchases can be made - 086-604-7089. Currently you can follow Club Donegal on Facebook at "Win Your House in Dublin", on Twitter @WinHouseDublin and on Instagram at @winyourhouseinDublin.

Following the Covid Lockdown, promotion of the draw was re-started last month. Currently, there is a Lucky 7 Bonus Draw. Buy your ticket by 7th September to be in with a chance to be one of seven lucky winners who will win seven tickets each.
