County Board Chairperson - Mick McGrath

Tá fáilte róibh go léir chuig na cluichí leathcheannais iosghradú a bhéas ar siul an deireadh seachtaine seo. Is am an-deacair é seo d'imreoirí, lucht bainistíochta, oifigigh agus lucht féachana agus tá áthas ar CLG Dhún na nGall a bheith in ann na cluichí leathcheannais seo a shruthlú beo agus and clár fíorúil seo a sholáthar ina bhfuil an fhaisnéis is tábhachtaí.

You are all very welcome to this weekend's relegation semi-finals in the junior and senior championships. Unfortunately, one of the four games scheduled had to be postponed for a week as a precautionary measure as a result of Covid-19.

We have battled against the change in our lifestyles, our work, our social fabric, our families, and our sporting involvement. The GAA has seen many changes since its foundation, and it has originated from the roots and soul of our Gaelic traditions, but no member could have foreseen the changes wrought by Covid-19.

The year 2020 will certainly remain in our memories as the year of transformation, and we continue to implement the many prevention measures required to keep this virus at bay. I encourage you all to continue the great work that we have all had a part to play in, and I thank you for the many hours of voluntary assistance you have contributed in your Club areas in assisting the HSE and others, in bringing safe and healthy practice to vulnerable and lonely members of our communities.

On behalf of the GAA in Donegal I thank the frontline workers who have given so much to helping our society, in facing the challenge of the coronavirus. There was a period this year where we all thought that we wouldn't get playing our games, but many difficulties were overcome to reach these championship playoffs. We have not agreed with all the instructions and regulations, but we respect the decision makers for their fight against this unprecedented virus while still getting our games played.

The County Competition Control Committee (CCC) have used new regulations, competition formats, and workmanlike decision making to reach this stage of championship, and we are all delighted to see the championship finalised in these difficult times. I congratulate all Clubs who have continued to contribute to giving us the opportunity to see Gaelic games played in changed and difficult times. The streaming of our games is a new phase and challenge that we have been thrown into, and we have tech-knowledgeable members getting to grips with this new way of bringing our club games into our homes.

I wish the eight competing teams, across the four games, and the match Officials, the best of luck.

Enda McFeeley, Referee - Ard na Ratha v An Clochán Liath

Refereeing out of the Naomh Mhuire club in Convo, Enda McFeeley started officiating in 2012 and joined the Ulster Academy in 2015. He has previously taken charge of under 17 Ulster minor league and championship games and under 20 championship as well as Ulster club senior and intermediate league and championship.

Enda has refereed in eleven finals including last year's first County final (there were two replays). He previously refereed the 2014 minor highlight the camaraderie of sport and the special place the GAA holds at the centre of so many communities. We have all missed the occasions and realise how lucky we are to be involved. Long may it continue.

Enda would like to thank his wife Emer for all her support, his son Shane and those who have officiated with him in this difficult time for all involved with Gaelic games.

Shane would like to thank his linesmen and umpires and wishes both teams the best of luck.

Two Cracking Senior Championship Relegation Semi-finals in Prospect

The fight to avoid the relegation places in the Michael Murphy Sports and Leisure Senior Championship went down to the final day of the competition with eight teams in danger of landing in the bottom four places. Wins for St Nauls and Killybegs hauled them both clear of the Relegation play-offs. Glenswilly had a narrow escape as Baile na nGalloglach drew with Na Ceithre Maistír to push the Donegal town side clear and leave the Milford side on just one league point -an extra point on the pitch to give them victory would have put them ahead of Glenswilly on points difference.

With a negative points difference of only 16 points Dungloe lost their first three games narrowly but a powerful second half performance from Killybegs in their final game condemned them to the play-offs. Neither Ardara nor Termon were treated kindly by the draw. Ard an Rátha put in credible performances against three quarterfinalists - with narrow losses to Sean MacCumhaills and St Michaels and getting closer to Naomh Conaill than any other team. However, they never got started against Realt na Mara, not helped by a star performance by Realt keeper Ashley Mulhearn. A young Termon side were unfortunate to meet both Kilcar and Naomh Conaill and stumbled against Naomh Naille in their final game - they were, however, short of a couple of their more experienced forwards in that game.

With the final placings throwing up regional rivals in both semi-finals parish pride combined with the fight for Senior Championship final should guarantee two cracking matches.

The Knock-Out Stages and Streaming

The Government's decision to play all Gaelic Games behind closed doors until September 13th is dis-appointing for all club members and other supporters. Ironically, CLG Dhún na nGall scheduled knock-out games for September because the original government roadmap designated the start of that month for the return of up to 5,000 supporters at our games. As Iron Mike said "everyone has a plan until they get punched in the face".

The GAA is a widespread grassroots organisation and it is important in these difficult times that CLG Dhún na nGall do their utmost to look after the interests of the members and supporters who make clubs throughout the County the excellent community organisations they are. As such, the County Board is striving to broadcast most of the 33 knockout games in the Michael Murphy Sports & Leisure Senior, Intermediate and Junior championships – football and hurling. Kudos to Aodh Ruadh and Setanta who stepped up to the mark last weekend to stream the Junior Hurling semi-finals on their own Facebook pages.

This weekend CLG Dhún na nGall intend to stream four Senior and four Intermediate Championship quarterfinals and three Relegation play-off games as follows:

Fri Sept 4th 8.30 - Ard na Ratha v An Clochán Liath in association with Ocean FM - Paddy McGill and Francie Friel

Sat Sept 5th 12.00 - Aodh Ruadh v Naomh Muire in association with RnaG - Damien O'Donnail and Sylvester Maguire

Sat Sept 5th 13.00 - Naomh Colmcille v An Bheart with commentary from Damien Dowds and Paul McGonigle

Sat Sept 5th 15.30 - Naomh Conaill v Gleann Fhinne in association with Highland Radio - Oisín Kelly and Martin McHugh

Sat Sept 5th 18.30 - Cill Chartha v Naomh Micheál in association with Highland Radio - Oisín Kelly and Martin McHugh

Sat Sept 5th 18.30 - Cloich Cheann Fhaola v Aodh Rua Cuil na gCuirridín in association with RnaG - Damien O'Donnell agus Seosamh Mac Ceallbhúí

Sun Sept 6th 13.00 - Naomh Bríd v Naomh Ultan with commentary from Ryan Walsh and Pat Campbell

Sun Sept 6th 15.00 - Gaath Dobhair v Sean MacCumhaill in association with RnaG - Damien O'Donnell agus Danny O'Donnell

Sun Sept 6th 15.30 - Buncranncha v Gaeil Fhánadá with commentary from Damien Dowds and Paul McGonigle

Sun Sept 6th 17.00 - Naomh Columba v Malainn in association with Ocean FM - Ciaran Cannon and John Joe Doherty

Sun Sept 6th 18.30 - Naomh Ádhamhnáin v Realt na Mara in association with Highland Radio - Oisín Kelly and Brendan Kilcoyne

All of these games are available on a PPV basis - €3 per game - via the Donegal GAA website.

It is planned to stream subsequent games over the rest of September although the latter end of the current schedule may be subject to change, moving forward or backwards, depending on future circumstances. While many clubs have been happily streaming over the last seven weeks, Donegal GAA streamed its first 2020 game on August 23rd - the Round 4 football game between St Eunans and St Michaels. The live stream attracted peak-viewing of over a 1,000 and within a few days had been viewed over 15,000 times on the Official Donegal Facebook page.

The knock-out games streamed by the County Board will be on a PPV basis. The quarterfinals will cost €3 and other games €5 except for the Senior football final which will be €8. The PRO will produce a series of "virtual programmes" - such as this one - that can be consulted on-line or downloaded/printed. Programmes will be included in the PPV price or free where there is no PPV as is the case with this Virtual Programme. While the County Board will endeavour to stream all knockout games where this is not possible it is hoped other games can be streamed with the help of clubs.

At this point, it is appropriate to express my gratitude to the many clubs that have streamed games (for free) and looked after the interests of their supporters locally, elsewhere in Ireland and overseas over recent weeks. The County Board will forego revenue on games where clubs are providing the voluntary help and will stream these games for free. For all streamed games, and the "free" ones in particular, it is worth noting that streaming in the County is still in its infancy, there may be occasional issues with consistent coverage in some venues and it is being provided by local, unpaid volunteers - people should manage their expectation around this. Finally thank you to the commentators - as above - and the four stream teams - described elsewhere in this programme who have made this venture possible.

Preview from Alan Foley - Donegal Sport Hub

Alan wrote this article before the Millford - Termon game was postponed.

This evening at the Donegal GAA Centre, those of you fortunate enough to be permitted attendance in these strange times can take a seat and enjoy the two relegation semi-finals of the Michael Murphy Sports & Leisure Donegal SFC.

So, in a way it's an opportunity to enjoy the experience in Convoy for the first time and a last but one chance for the four teams involved.

Of that quartet, Milford came the closest to saving themselves on the final round of fixtures in the opening round. In the depths of injury time at Moyle View, Ronan Docherty's score against Four Masters looked like it was going to keep Shaun Paul Barrett's team bobbing above the watermark. However, Glenswilly were saved a fixture this weekend when substitute Sean O'Kennedy levelled for a 1-13 to 0-16 draw for the Donegal town

Milford will take on a Termon team who endured a tough series of fixtures, having been paired against both Kilcar and Naomh Conaill on the road. Francie Friel will be hoping to see some of the spirit his young side showed in the narrow 2-16 to 2-12 loss to Bundoran. Last year's Minor A Championship win shows there are shoots coming through the surface at the Burn Road.

Ardara had a tough campaign, losing all four of their outings. They were narrowly beaten by MacCumhail's on the opening weekend in Ballybofey and also shaved a few feathers off St Michael's at the Bridge. They'll be looking to draw on whatever positives they can from those defeats against Dungloe, who might be wondering how they've ended up where they did.

The team from Rosses Park were right in the mix in all four of their outings. But having picked up nothing against St Naul's, MacCumhail's Four Masters and Killybegs, they'll have to fight their way out of the corner – just like everyone else will here in Convoy.

Local rivalries will add spice to Intermediate Championship Relegation semi-finals

None of the bottom four teams going into final Round of games in the Intermediate Championship picked up points on the last day of the league games so all four - Naomh Bríd, Naomh Colmcille, Burt and Naomh Ultan - find themselves in the relegation play-offs. Both games are local derbies with Naomh Bríd taking on Naomh Ultan and Naomh Colmcille playing Burt and the latter in particular, between neighbouring clubs, will be keenly contested.

With a win against Naomh Ultan in Round 1, Naomh Colmcille might have expected to progress to the quarterfinals but subsequent losses to Malin and Naomh Muire left the daunting task of beating table-toppers Buncrana in their final game. After losses in their first two games, Naomh Bríd's win over Burt gave them a fighting chance on the long trip to Falcarragh but despite a brave struggle Cloich Cheann Fhaola claimed the win. Both Burt and Naomh Ultan went into the final day winless but still with outside chances of breaking free of the bottom four. Both had some advantage but Naomh Columba proved too strong for the Inishowen side and Rd Hughs came away with the points in Dunkineely.

All four teams will be quietly confident going into this weekend's games and their fans can look forward to two cracking ties. The Naomh Bríd-Naomh Ultan game will be streamed from Páirc Thír Chonail and commentary will be provided by Ryan Walsh and Pat Campbell, manager of the Four Masters Senior team. The Scarvey fixture will also be streamed and commentary for Naomh Colmcille will be from Damien Dowds and Paul McGonigle

Burt v Naomh Colmcille - Local Derby with a Difference

Gerard McLaughlin

Shaun Murphy's Burt will face Saturday afternoon in the Scarvey the Intermediate Championship for to face either Naomh Brid or Naomh Junior Championship in 2021.

Joe Donaghy's Naomh Colmcille this with the winner securing their place in another season, while the loser will have Ultan for one last crack at avoiding the Needless to say, it has been a poor season to date for both sides, with Naomh Colmcille winning one game and losing three, while Burt lost all four, on what was the more difficult side of the draw.

Naomh Colmcille made the quarter final last season, before eventually losing out to Cloughaneely, while Burt managed to beat Naomh Ultan to retain their status at intermediate level.

It's clear that the Newtown men have missed Michael Lynch, following his attempted transfer to Gaoth Dobhair and Donaghy will look to the likes of Daniel Clarke and Ryan McErlean to drive his side on this weekend.

Burt should be able to call on the services of danger man Christy McDermott after injury and Murphy will be hoping that the big man can lead his side to victory over their neighbours on Saturday.

Naomh Bríd slight favourites in Páirc Thír Chonaill on Sunday

Naomh Bríd and Naomh Ultan are of their Intermediate Championship relegation play-off in Tírconnaill Park

fighting for more than retention on Sunday when they meet in the at 1 pm.

These two sides started the season scalp of Four Masters in the Regional on a high when both claimed the League.

Naomh Bríd had one win in the championship league section, at home to Burt, but were competitive in the other games, tough encounters at home to Aodh Ruadh and difficult away games in Glencolmcille and Cloughaneely.

They parted with their manager, Dougie Corbett, after the first defeat in Glen.

Naomh Ultan have found the going tough after losing big full-forward Alan Lyons to injury in their opening game against Naomh Colmcille. it was the first of four defeats and they go into Sunday's game as the underdogs. They may need the second play-off game to survive in the Intermediate grade.

Streaming the game is C-Live Sport which consists of Hugh Quirke on Camera and Sean Quirke looking after all technical aspects of the live stream, including switchers, graphics, score, etc,

Hugh and Sean have a combined tenure in the video-graphy business of over 50 years. Together they aim to bring live streams, of the highest possible quality, of sporting events at a local and national level to the general population.

Club Donegal WinYourHouseinDublin Draw

The online site for the Club Donegal House Draw is live at www.winyourhouseindublin.com. The top prize is a four bedroom house, semi-detached, in Dublin in association with Alanna Homes. The house is newly built to the latest energy efficiency standards and is valued at €400,000. There are also four other prizes including a brand new Mazda 2, a week's holiday, €1,000 cash and a night's B&B in Carton House with a round of golf for 2.

All proceeds from the draw go towards paying the debt on the newly completed Phase 2 of the Donegal GAA Centre in Convooy and financing the planned Phase 3. The ongoing development of the Centre is a key plank in the future success of GAA games in Donegal - football and hurling, youth and adult, ladies and men. The Donegal Facebook page has a video of county manager Declan Bonner and captain Michael Murphy discussing the centrality of the facilities at Convooy to both the continued success of our county representatives and the nurturing of future stars.

Tickets for the draw can be bought online using devices from mobiles to desktop computers. Tickets are also from contacts within each of the forty clubs in the County. Thanks you to the Abbey Hotel, Donegal; the Allingham Arms, Bundoran; the Mount Errigal, Letterkenny; and the Villa Rose, Ballybofey - tickets had been available from these venues but due to Covid 19 regulations this is no longer the case.

During the half-time break in today's game you can listen to Donegal native Daniel O'Donnell promoting the draw. During the interval there will also be an excellent bird's eye view of the recently completed Phase 2 of the Centre compliments of drone footage shot by main contractors McDermott and Trearty. WinYourHouseinDublin also sponsor today's Man of the Match.

There is a dedicated mobile phone number, where queries can be answered and purchases can be made - 086-604-7089. Currently you can follow Club Donegal on Facebook at "Win Your House in Dublin", on Twitter @WinHouseDublin and on Instagram at @winyourhouseinDublin.

Following the Covid Lockdown, promotion of the draw was re-started last month. Currently, there is a Lucky 7 Bonus Draw. Buy your ticket by 7th September to be in with a chance to be one of seven lucky winners who will win seven tickets each.
